Hey Shutterbugs!

It's summertime! A time of long days, hot nights, dramatic thunderstorms, summer vacations and romances. Sliding Door Gallery is taking advantage of the long hot summer days by having a Summertime show, and we want YOU to show in our gallery!

Whatever summertime means to you, we want to see it. And we're mindful of the economy, too, so guess what? You don't even have to frame your images!

A sea of grass
And disappeared among
The shady blades
Children all ran over me
Screaming Tag
You are the one.*
